

STANDARDS	INDICATORS
i. Student instruction shall be supported through the use of a variety of both print and non-print material.	A variety of print and non-print material is available, including items such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> o fiction and non-fiction books; o paperback books; o reference materials; o periodicals; o newspapers; o vertical file materials; o cassettes; o overhead transparencies; o videotapes; o film strips; o computer programs; o maps and globes; and o microfilms are available and are used in conjunction with instructional programs in each of the curriculum areas as outlined in this guide.
j. The library/media material shall be organized so as to be readily accessible to the user.	Material is catalogued using a nationally recognized classification system.