

Middletown Public Schools "Kid-Friendly" Technology Standards

T1a	Students understand how to operate a computer correctly.
T1b	Students are proficient in the use of the computer
T2a	Students understand how the computer impacts the workplace and society.
T2b	Students practice responsible use of technology systems, information, and software.
T2c	Students understand how computers support the learning process.
T3a	Students use software and hardware to show learning.
T3b	Students use content area tools and software to create a product.
T4a	Students use the Internet to work together with peers, experts and other audiences to produce a product.
T4b	Students use a variety of media to communicate information and ideas to multiple audiences.
T5a	Students use technology to locate, evaluate, and collect information from a variety of sources.
T5b	Students use tools to process data and report results.
T5c	Students use appropriate tools and technology to solve problems.
T6a	Students use technology resources for solving problems and making informed decisions.
T6b	Students make use of technology in the development of strategies for solving problems in the real world.