

JOHNSTON INTEGRATED PRESCHOOL
SEEKS STUDENTS FOR FALL 2007

The Johnston Special Education Pre-school and Early Childhood Center are currently seeking the enrollment of children from the community to participate in an integrated preschool program. The program is designed for children with special needs and their “typically developing” peers to engage in a nurturing educational environment, where they can jointly learn and socially interact. The various special education support services, such as speech/language, occupation and physical therapy, etc. are included in the program. The role of the peer model or “Buddy” is to demonstrate appropriate classroom behavior, self-help, play and communication skills. The program will operate Monday, Wednesday and Thursday from 12:45-3:15 at the Early Childhood Center starting in September 2007 and will follow the Johnston school calendar. The tuition fee will be $100.00 per month and paid in monthly installments.

Interested participants must:

- be a Johnston resident and have proof of residency
- be four years of age by September 1, 2007
- have successfully completed a recent Child Outreach and arena screening
- provide transportation
- have updated physical exam and immunization record
- provide a copy of birth certificate

Successful candidates will be chosen through a lottery drawing.

An application may be obtained at the Johnston Superintendent’s Office. Completed applications must be returned to the Superintendent’s Office by Friday, February 9, 2007. For additional information, contact Sue Jadosz @ 233-1900 ext. 2439.
